EASTERN DATES TO NOV. 29.

EASTERN STATES.

John Quincy Adams "Passive."

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.—John Quincy Adams has written a letter which appears in the Missouri Republican to-morrow in which he firmly indorses the so-called passive policy for Democrats in the next Presidential election.

The National Board of Trade will meet at St. Louis December 6th. Arrangements have been made for the proper reception and entertainment of members.

South Carolina Affairs.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 29.—The General Assembly met at Columbia to-day and Governor Scott's message was received. It argues that depreciation in the State's credit is due to persistent threats of repudiation by individuals of the press for political purposes. He is confident that the State will pay all its obligations to the last cent.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—The Mace-Coburn mill occurs to-morrow within fifty miles of New Orleans. The police report an influx of a large number of roughs and thieves.

Gen. Trevino telegraphs from Matamoros to the revolutionists at Monterey that he has captured the greater part of the city of Saltillo, in late battles, and is pressing the siege most vigorously. Sixteen hundred Govern ment troops are hemmed inside and the water supply is cut off. He reports that Gen. Puerroga had reinforced him with troops and supplies from Ceralvo. The capitulation of Saltillo is hourly expected by insurgent sympathizers here.

Movements of Alexis.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—The Grand Duke Alexis is expected at Boston December 7th, and to remain the guest of the city during Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Ducal party will visit Montreal on the 12th and Ottawa on the 13th, where the Duke will pay his repects to the Governor General, and thence proceed to Niagara Falls.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The reception of the Grand Duke and officers of the Russian fleet tonight, by the Navy Yard officers, was a grand affair. From nine to twelve o'clock, carriages extended continuously from Fulton ferry to the gate yard, nearly two miles. Persons were kept waiting from three to four hours before reaching the hall room. The Duke entered at 10½ o'clock with Admiral Pasniet and Minister Catacazy. On entering the hall room, a general rush was made to get near him. He was conducted to a raised dais in the center of the room. Alexis took first, Admiral Pasniet the supper room. The Duke wore the uniform of a Naval Lieutenant. He took dancing coolly and danced several times with Mrs. Admiral Smith and afterwards with younger ladies. Julien conducted the music and played the Russian hymn on the entrance of the Prince.

Judge Brady granted an order for the arrest of Mayor Hall on a similar complaint to those against Tweed and Connolly. The fact became known at the City Hall during the forenoon. Hall soon disappeared, it is supposed, to secure bondsmen and save the annoyance of remaining in custody on Thanksgiving day.

To-morrow will be observed as a close holiday. All business will be suspended.

From Brownsville, Texas.

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 29.—The first rail of the Brownsville and Fort Kearney railroad was laid to-day. A large number of citizens were present and much enthusiasm prevailed.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The authorities do not apprehend difficulty at Havana with American citizens, but say the return of the squadron to the north Atlantic is in accordance with usage, so as to have a force convenient for the protection of citizens, should necessity for it occur. They look upon recent disturbances in Havana as merely of a local character.

Vice President Colfax and family, Senators Morton and Morrill of Maine with their families, and Senator Sumner arrived to-day. There are now about thirty members of Congress in Washington.

Colonel W. F. Stocking of New York and Miss Lottie Miller, daughter of Justice Miller of the Supreme Court, were married to-day at the residence of the bride's parents at Paris Hill. Among those present were the President and Mrs. Grant, the Chief Justice and Justices of Supreme Court with their wives.

Treasurer Spinner this evening forwards checks for eight million dollars in coin to parties in various parts of the country who have sent 5-20 bonds for redemption. The Treasury Department to-day received $16,000,000 of called '62 bonds from London. Altogether the Department has received $25,000,000 of our $100,000,000 of called bonds, of which it will only be requisite to redeem in coin between six and seven millions. The remaining portion has all been offered in exchange for five per cent. It is confidently believed at the Treasury Department that negotiations connected with the syndicate will all be completed without any unusual disturbances of the money market. The syndicate operations will not affect in any way the Secretary's monthly programme for the purchase of bonds for the sinking fund.

MEXICO.

Anarchy Throughout the Country.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 19, via Havana, Nov. 29.—A state of anarchy prevails throughout the entire Republic. Journals are filled with accounts of pronunciamentos, and troops are growing revolutionary. Gen. Porfierro Diaz has been formally pronounced President, and backed by Ministers of the State of Oaxaca, which has decreed to return to its own sovereignty. The greater part of the army is destroyed. Senor Romero will soon go to Washington, but whether officially or not is unknown.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Rome.

ROME, Nov. 29.—The Pope yesterday replying to an address expressed confidence in the triumph of the church, and protested against the idea of compromise with the rulers of Italy.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—At the third annual regatta of the Pioneer Boat Club, yesterday afternoon, there was nobody to contend with E. Nelson, last winner of the silver Club medal, and it therefore became his private property. The single scull race of the California club was narrowed down to a contest between N. White and Geo. Allen, White winning. Other races were not of general interest.

The steamer Idaho arrived this morning from Mazatlan and Guaymas. The purser furnishes the following memoranda: On our arrival at Mazatlan, Nov. 20, found that city had been pronounced in favor of Diaz for President, the pronouncing party taking possession of the city, the officers holding power from the Juarez government taking refuge on board the American man-of-war Mohican. The list of officers now in power are as follows: Governor of Sinaloa, Mato Mazuna; Collector of Customs, Francisco Conceda; Prefect, Ignacio Tapia; Captain of Port, Pedro Victoria.

The Order of Progression have modified the commercial tax on silver and bullion as follows: Export duty on bullion, 5 per cent, on eagle dollars, 4 per cent—formerly 8 per cent. Light house dues are abolished entirely. The decrees of the revolutionary Governor are signed simply by the Governor of Sinaloa; no reference being made to the Federal government, and the official style of independence and liberty is dropped. The revolutionists claim to be the party of progress.

Boston has a new monthly devoted entirely to poetry, and christened The Beautiful World. A single stanza from it will show the kind of poetry of which it is made up:

I love the cosy little bower,
With room just large enough for one,
But yet accommodates another
For one just as well as none.

OREGON.

It is said that an extensive carriage factory will be erected at Albany.

Col. A. G. Bros has been appointed Light House Keeper at Yaquina Bay. The appointment is a first rate one.

The Oregon City Enterprise says: A town is springing up on Eagle Creek, at what is known as Foster's. There is a rich section of country in that vicinity, which would support quite a little town in that portion of our county.

William Riley of Linn county, while hunting in the Cascade mountains last week shot a cougar. The beast was about 75 yards distant, and sprang towards him. Just as it was about to leap upon him he gave it the other barrel and it fell dead at his feet with a terrific yell. A situation like this might well unnerve a man.

The Republicans of Salem have made the following nominations: For Mayor, Daniel Payton; Recorder, J. M. Patterson; Marshal, Jas. W. Fisher; Treasurer, A. N. Gilbert. The following named gentlemen were elected Executive Committee for the ensuing year: First Ward, D. McCully; Second, Capt. Scott; Third, B. F. Drake; Fourth, J. A. Baker; for the city at large, Rufus Mallory.

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

In the December Atlantic Bret Harte has a story entitled the "Princess Bob and Her Friends." The Boston Advertiser says of it: "It is by much the best thing from his pen during the year, and encourages a hope that his genius will recover from the lethargy into which it seemed to have fallen."

The internal revenue receipts from tobacco, as shown by the reports made to the Bureau of Internal Revenue, show a gradual monthly increase from this source, and it is expected that they will reach during the present year upwards of $35,000,000. The receipts for the fiscal year ended June 30 last, was $33,578,907 19.

The review of the year's fishing business at Gloucester, Mass., reveals a mournful phase of this much-afflicted branch of industry. During the year, by the loss of one hundred and thirty-six lives, forty-five women are widowed and ninety children left fatherless; and this tale of sorrow makes no account of the wider circle of sorrow and bereavement which the death of sons and brothers has spread in one small region of the sterile coast of New England.

The Secretary of the Navy has issued an order in regard to the "hazing" operations in the Military Academy. He calls the practice "barbarous" and "ungentlemanly," and says: "Young gentlemen selected to be educated for the public service at the public expense must realize that the continuance of the national favor depends upon the faith with which it is received, and that misconduct in their position, like misconduct in any other office, deserves, and will inevitably be followed by, removal."

Duke Alexis of Russia, who is now "doing" America, is the third son of the reigning Czar Alexander. The first was Alexander, born March 10th, 1845; the second was Vladimir, born April 3d, 1847; the third Alexis, born January 14th, 1850; fourth, the Grand Duchess Maria, born October 17th, 1850; fifth, Sergius, born May 11th, 1857; sixth, Paul, born October 3d, 1860. Our visitor is therefore in his twenty-second year, and is represented as being a young man of good talents and correct habits. Alexander, the heir apparent, died some years ago, which makes the second son Vladimir the Prince Imperial.

POLITICAL NOTES.

A controversy has arisen between the Memphis Avalanche and the Cincinnati Inquirer in regard to the nomination by the latter of Tom Ewing for the Presidency. It is merely a question of Bourbonism skimmered through the new departure to "pessivism."

The New York Star, one of the strongest and latest adherents of the Tammany Democracy, "gives up the ship." It acknowledges that the Democratic party is dead, and past resurrection. It virtually admits the hopelessness of a Democratic nomination for the Presidency of 1872, but thinks an amalgamation of all opposition to the present administration might make a successful canvass.

That association of vulgar thieves, ablaze with diamonds and with pockets plethoric with stolen public funds, known as the "American Club," which has been the great pride and boast of the Tammany ring and the admiration of its vulgar claquers, is dead. The New York Herald says: "The announcement that this Club has ceased to exist will bring mourning to many an individual who has revelled in the bounties of the defunct ring in this city."

The following is a list of names mentioned for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, so far as heard from, according to the classification of the Cincinnati Inquirer: Thomas A. Scott, Thomas A. Hendricks, Charles O'Conor, Senator Thurman, Judge Thompson of Pennsylvania, George H. Pendleton, Governor Hoffman, Governor Parker, Mr. Groesbeck and ex-Judge Ramsey. What has become of General Hancock, Judge Davis, and so forth, and so forth?

The Thunderer on General Grant's Administration.

[From the London Times, Oct. 31.]

Various causes have combined to produce this prevalence of Republic views. Of course, the great achievements of the war, and the conviction that the party may be best trusted to secure and consolidate what it had gained in the contest, are the enduring bases of the Republican power. But to these may be added the administrative and financial success of the last few years, and the favorable relations of the country with foreign powers. At the same time it would seem that the Democratic party has, whether justly or otherwise, lost caste. A large majority of the best class of Americans are Republicans, perhaps for the reason that some of the worst have taken the lead in certain places on the other side. The city of New York has to bear the blame of this unpopularity of the Democrats. It is observed that since the exposure of the Tammany frauds the Republican feeling has deepened, and the late elections may have been largely influenced by this incident.

The general opinion is that General Grant will be nominated for re-election. In favor of this course will be the respect he has won, not only from the Republicans, but from moderate men of all parties, by his honest and conscientious discharge of duty, and the knowledge of the electors that they have in him a tried man fit for any emergency of the time. On the other side, there is only the prejudice against electing the same man twice. This feeling has been very strong with the present generation of Americans, and has, we believe, made a single term for the Presidency almost a cardinal principle with some politicians. It was not so in the early days of the Union.

It remains to be seen whether General Grant's merits and popularity will secure him this high honor. We can only say that such a result of the coming discussions would be received with the utmost satisfaction in this country. The interests of England and the United States are now so interwoven in commercial and, therefore, in political matters, that the character of the American Executive is of no small importance to us, and we believe the general opinion to be, that the States have never had a Government more straightforward and conciliatory than the present in its foreign policy, and more to be trusted by those whose commercial and financial interests are bound up with the maintenance of American credit. The firmness and moderation with which order has been restored, the economical skill with which the debt has been reduced, and the good will with which international controversies have been brought to a close, makes us anticipate with satisfaction the election of General Grant to a second term of office.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Sales in the Stock Board during the past few weeks foot up $1,792,000.

The little steamer Coquille is reported to have arrived safely at Port Orford, and has gone into Rogue river.

Sharpsteer is now closing his argument for the prosecution in the Turner-Ortiz seduction and breach of promise case, and it will probably go to the jury this evening.

One million one hundred and nineteen thousand dollars has been received from the Meadow valley mine up to date.

In the Hawes will case the counsel for the contestors have been introducing witnesses to-day to show the sanity of the testator, in rebuttals of evidence of the opposition. They closed the case this evening by introducing the will itself, which is now being read. The arguments will probably commence to-morrow.

This afternoon, about half-past three o'clock, an intense excitement prevailed for some minutes, over the report that Judge Lake, of the Municipal Court, had shot and killed Charles DeYoung, of the Chronicle, on Montgomery street, between Sacramento and California streets, and that Judge Edward Wheeler, who was passing, had been mortally wounded. There are numerous versions of the affair, but the most prevalent is, that the two met on the sidewalk and had high words, on account of articles attacking the Judge that appeared in the Chronicle, when Lake struck DeYoung with the pistol on the side of the head, inflicting a somewhat severe flesh wound, and one chamber of the pistol being discharged the bullet passed through the thigh of Judge Wheeler, inflicting a severe, but not dangerous, wound. Lake claims that DeYoung attempted to draw his pistol, when he drew his and struck him as stated. He was instantly arrested by officers who were near at the moment, and taken to Chief Crowley's office, and from there to Judge Pendy's office, when he gave bail to appear to answer a charge of assault to murder. DeYoung's friends claim that his wound came from the bullet, not from a blow with the butt of a pistol, as stated, and some of the bystanders thought they heard two shots instead of one. The pistol had only one chamber discharged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The Turner-Ortiz jury has just gone out. The general impression is that they will not agree or will give the plaintiff (a girl) damages. If Ortiz had not devoted everything relative to their intimacy, the chances would have been two to one in his favor in popular opinion.

The friends of DeYoung claim that the pistol which he usually carries was in his overcoat pocket in his office at the time of the collision between him and Judge Lake, and that he did not have any weapon on him at the time. They also claim that Lake struck him a heavy blow with a cane before the word passed between them. It is hard getting at the facts; the friends of each party being equally positive in their assertions.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—The breakwater is progressing slowly. Two hundred feet is completed, and three hundred feet of piling is driven.

The hills are now green with new grass.

A general revival of the principal sisters and many of the agitators among the Chinese is noticeable.

STOCKTON, Dec. 1.—John McLaughlin, a resident of Sonora, left that town a few days since in search of cattle in the mountains, and has not been heard from. It is feared that he has perished in the same snow storm.

H. R. Crowell, lost in the mountains between Bell Meadows and Sonora, perished from fatigue before assistance could reach him.

NEVADA.

Stage Robbery.

HAMILTON, Dec. 1.—The stage that left for Pioche Wednesday last was stopped by highwaymen near Shingle Springs Thursday morning, and robbed Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box of one thousand dollars coin. Full particulars not received.

UTAH.

Miscellaneous News.

SALT LAKE, Dec. 1.—Thanksgiving has been observed by all. Stores were all closed and business entirely suspended. Services were held in all the churches, and the grandest ball ever given in Salt Lake took place in the evening.

George C. Bates, the newly appointed United States Attorney for Utah, arrived yesterday, and was presented to Judge McKean in Court this morning, who welcomed him. Mr. Bates said: "I have now only to state that with God's blessing I will perform the duties, with fairness and equity, calmness and candor, with equal and exact justice towards the people of this Territory irrespective of caste, color, religion, sect or sex."

Mr. Barker in Court called attention to a reported interview of Tom Fitch, counsel for Brigham Young and others, with an attache of the New York press. Mr. B. said the remarks made by Fitch on that occasion reflecting upon the Court in connection with State trials now pending here, were either misstated or Mr. Fitch had been guilty of gross falsehood.

Russian Opinion Against Prussia.

The Moscow Gazette, in a recent editorial article, counsels Russia to demand the neutralization of Denmark and the restoration of Northern Schleswig to the latter country "as a means to counteract the power of Prussia on the Baltic Sea." Throughout Russia the general consequences of German unity and the probable results of Prussian power in the Baltic Sea are discussed with the greatest animation. In the chief cities the mind of the Russian people is inflamed by direct appeals against the idea of permitting a German political propagandism on the Esthonian and Livonian frontiers of the Empire. The St. Petersburg Golos says:

Germany has settled within her own mind that the answer to her well known song, is, Wherever Germans are at hand.

Where is the German Fatherland?

And as, of course, such a programme for German nationality presents nothing quieting for the future, we can see no guarantee for peace, at least from those quarters. Such a programme, of course, bothers Austria most of all, and she seems to acknowledge placidly that instead of contending with such an all-powerful neighbor as Prussia has proved herself to be, a peaceable understanding between herself and Bismarck is much to be preferred. A consequence of this conviction we find in the meetings at Ischi, Gastein and Salzburg. What they have been talking about and settling is a question which puzzles, every one, for though no written treaty has appeared about it, to some understanding they have certainly come. Now,

THE PRESENT RUINOUS POSITION

of Austria is well enough known. She sees no issue from her troubles but in federalism or expansion eastwards. All her federalistic experiments have hitherto failed, as whatever she has tried to do for one province has met with such jealous opposition from the others that she has been fain to undo what she had done. Setting aside all personal attachment and fellow-feeling, matters look rather different. As long as Prussia acknowledged our supremacy in the Baltic Sea and our rights in the Baltic provinces there was no chance of any collision. But now, German union has become the hobby and German naval power

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 2, 1871.

The New Scientific Expedition.

Some days ago the telegraph advised us that the new steamer Hassler, bearing a party who are to study the ocean bottom, currents, temperature and life of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, had sailed from Boston. The Government has fitted out the expedition. At the head of the scientific corps is Professor Agassiz, and the work will be under the supervision of Count De Pourtales, who has had extensive experience in deep sea dredging. Among the assistants are Dr. Thomas Hill, late President of Harvard University, Dr. White, of Philadelphia, and other well-known scientific students. The object is, in brief, to investigate the bottom of the ocean in its deepest part, to trace the sources of the currents, and to compare the Atlantic with the Pacific in order to ascertain among other things, whether the one is higher than the other, as some contend, whether the temperature is the same, and what are the currents that come into conflict. In connection with this will be the study of the transparency of the ocean; the specific saltness of sea water, its specific gravity, and its chemical constitution, and of the animals inhabiting the sea bottom, and the fishes of the deep sea, which, it is thought, may give the means of ascertaining whether the great oceans in some past time communicated one with the other.

The winter is to be spent about the West Indies and the central Atlantic. The sources of the Gulf Stream, the manner in which the African current enters the Gulf, the life of the tropical seas, the greatest depth of the ocean, and the configuration of the ocean bottom, will be the objects of study there. Then, going further south, the currents that flow from the southern pole into the Atlantic, and the glacial phenomena of the straits of Magellan will engage their attention while making for San Juan Fernandez. Next spring and summer they will be occupied with the Pacific coast and the American coast from Panama to San Francisco, and perhaps as far north as Sitka.

The importance of the work and of the results obtained will be both scientific and commercial. Prof. Agassiz has a theory that the currents of the ocean are largely, if not wholly, to be accounted for from the formation of the ocean bottom. His experiments will tend to test this theory. Then new apparatus for dredging is to be [illegible] sail, so that the life of the sea bottom, and the character of its composition can be investigated at depths never before reached. In the interests of commerce will be the determination of the relative heights of the two oceans. In this direction the canal question will be affected, and the investigations in behalf of a canal, if further pursued, can be carried on with better understanding and with clearer light than now. The more exact location and knowledge of the great inter-oceanic currents will be another far from trifling benefit to navigation. Indeed in its scope and in its probable results our country has never fitted out a more important expedition. It is, to a great degree, new in its object, and is conducted by the best men we can furnish.

The "Authorities."

A few days ago we had occasion to say this in regard to "Miller, Grover & Co."

For our own part, if we had any business to transact with the State authorities, we should go directly to this firm. Mr. Grover is nominally Governor, but Mr. Miller is the principal man.

The Herald copies the above and rejoins:

We believe there was a certain notable bill before the last Legislature, in which this city had an interest, in favor of which all the pretended Governors, set up by the Radical press, were mustered, but we have heard the bill was vetoed. Since that time, observing men, it is said, have gone directly to Governor Grover if they desire to know his views.

The Governor's organ is quite unfortunate in having mentioned this. That "certain notable bill" was one which the Democrats in the Legislature didn't like to vote for. But the real Governor ordered enough of them to vote for it to secure its passage and then ordered the nominal Governor to veto it. The object of his strategy in putting the bill through the Legislature was to get help to put some of his own schemes through; and then, as he didn't want this "certain notable bill" to become a law and had never intended that it should, he caused the Executive veto to be written. Since that time observing men don't go to Mr. Grover to ascertain what his views are, for it is not understood that he has any; but they are more than ever convinced of the necessity of watchfulness, so that the real "authorities" can't go back on them.

At Chicago fear of fire seems to have bereft some of the journals of their senses. The Tribune, for instance, calls on the Legislature of a State to pass a bill to prohibit the erection of wooden buildings inside of the city limits in all cities having 100,000 inhabitants. The Evening Mail, with more judgment, says that such a bill, if rightly named, would be called a bill to prevent cities from having more than 100,000 population. It adds: "It is safe to say that with such a bill Chicago would soon be reduced to a city of less than a hundred thousand inhabitants. With such a law there would be plenty of land within the city limits for sale at less than a hundred dollars an acre. Thousands of industrious mechanics and laborers who have managed to possess a lot and comfortable little home upon it, would be driven outside the city limits by such a law."

It is stated that John S. Loomis, the Land Commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad is inaugurating measures for establishing a comprehensive system of tree culture in the prairie regions of the Red River valley and Dakotah, which are traversed by the line of that road. The same system of tree planting will be continued through the whole of the vast treeless region through which the road will pass.

The Republican National Committee will assemble in Washington on the 11th January next, to issue a call for a Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, and to designate the place at which the Convention will be held. It is said that an informal canvass of the preference of the members of the Committee seems to indicate that New York city will be chosen. The choice lies between that city and Cincinnati.

We have information that a weekly paper is to be started at Hillsboro soon. It will be a Republican paper, and will be conducted by Messrs. Boone & Snyder, two practical printers from Salem. It is intended to get out the first number in the beginning of January.

Democracy Effervescent.

In these times when "Democratic principles" seem to want definition, and the masses of the party don't know what they are to rely on, the following from the Caucasian, a bed-rock Democratic organ published at Lexington, Missouri, should carry consolation to many minds. We commend it to the Democratic politicians of Oregon as suitable material to make their platform of next spring, and, as these are times of great uncertainty and embarrassment for Democratic platform makers, it is to be hoped that they will clip out this expression of "principles" and carry them in their vest pockets for ready reference. It will be seen that the Caucasian opens by refusing to join in the thanksgiving recommended by the President:

The whisky-steeped bundle of old hides and cigar-stumps, ignorance, avarice, and brass-mounted insolence, that recently returned to Washington, from a four months' carouse at Long Branch and Saratoga, has issued his second annual piety-blast—"proclaiming" Thursday, the thirtieth of this month, a day of "thanksgiving and prayer." What has he, the inebriated boor, to do with our thanksgiving? Let him thank God or Devil, as he pleases, for his pickings and stealings, gobblings, guzzlings and bribe-lings. But let him not insult forty millions of sobing, groaning, impoverished, FALLEN FREEMEN, by calling on them to return thanks for the extravagance, the rioting and debauchery, the extortion, robbery and outlawry, by which rum nose has been bloated, and his spirchod: Thanks! He command us to be thankful? For what? Thanks, that the Republic of our fathers is a eclectic dominion, a dead cook in the pit of nations. Thanks for the groaning prison-pens of South Carolina—where nigger dragoons stand guard over cowering white captives, broken-spirited American citizens. Thanks, that a herd of perjured outlaws, ruffians, sworn to support the Constitution, the foundation of all lawand liberty this continent, have rent the sacred parchment into a million tatters, and trampled it beneath their swinish hoofs in the muck and mire of the modern Sodom. Thanks, that nine once glorious sovereign States, are kicked in and out of the Union bull-pen, at the will of a drunken cabal of Congressional conspirators—States to pay taxes and ratify bidsons monstrocities known as "Amendments"—Territories, Satraps, Proconsulates, in everything else. Thanks, that gibbering hordes of lousy plantation niggers, and twang-snouted imported vagabonds, the offal of Africa and Canadom, meet in nine noble State Capitols, to legislate for the sons of the Washingtons, Randolphs, Pinckneys, Rutledges, Hamptons and Lees. Thanks, that a nigger barber scrapes his uncouth cross-mark to official acts, and edicts, as Lieutenant Governor of queenly Louisiana; that a nigger hotel-waiter issues commissions as Secretary of State of Mississippi; that a Pennsylvania nigger fills the Supreme Judgeship of South Carolina; and that a grinning nigger thief, from Leavenworth, Kansas, for two years, picked his cannibal fangs and combed his vermin-creeping wool, in the seat once filled by the patriot, soldier, scholar and statesman, Jefferson Davis, as united States Senator from Mississippi.

There now! We don't know why a party that can boast of such "principles" as these shouldn't be well enough fixed without having to try "new departures" and "passive" dodges! Certainly the Oregon Democracy could draw materials from the above for as good a platform as they want.

Letter from Eastern Oregon.

SLATER CRAWFISHES.

EASTERN OREGON, Nov. 23, 1871.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: A few months ago, an insignificant paper in Baker City, published the assertion that the "unterrified" of Eastern Oregon had surrendered up, "heart, body and soul" their former cardinal principles and were clinging unto the much discussed Vallandigham platform, and as proof, quoted the name of Hon. James H. Slater, Oregon's present silent member in Congress, as having adopted the famous Ohio resolutions. There could be no mistake. The editor asserted that he was duly authorized to make the statement, therefore, all doubts hereafter must be at rest.

Now this fact would amount to nothing if the matter here ended; but, alas, the end comes not yet.

The Democracy of Eastern Oregon prides itself upon its adherence to principles—radical in character, and in opposition to anything that smacks of Republicanism, and the assertion of the Bedrock caused a flutter in the ranks of the "faithful" and agitated and excited discussions on the street corners, in stores and whenever opportunity offered, by those who felt the force of the slander.

As a prominent Democrat informed me, the Democrats, felt wronged and insulted all the more by the man whom they had elevated to office, and they did not propose to have a doctrine crammed down them and their utterance muzzled, even though a Congressman attempted it.

Well, after considerable discussion, it became apparent that a retraction must be made. The prestige was beginning to have its effect. Hendershott, Hunter, Hulsey, McComas, Warnick and other prominent Democrats, denounced the "New Departure" in measured terms, boldly asserting as true Democrat could consistently adopt it, or favor its adoption as a party measure, a storm was brewing, and portentious clouds seemed to fill the political atmosphere. The question had resolved itself into whether Slater would "crawfish" or go by the board. Some thought he would stand firm, but others, who knew the man perfectly felt assured he would beat a hasty retreat. All at once it was announced that "Hon. Jas. H. Slater, would address the people of Union county on the political issues of the day," and since then the people of the different towns throughout the valley have been regaled at different times with what I understand them to say, and what the people, in their blindness cannot see they were meant for.

Oh! consistency, thou art a jewel. Here was a back down from a former position, and why? Because self-interest was at stake; because the prestige was too great for him to successfully oppose; and because it was the characteristic of the man to abandon friends or principles whenever they become unpopular and to carry weight on both shoulders.

It is well known to the people of Oregon that he has continually "hankered" after official preferment, also, that he has accepted every opportunity, whether consistent with the party creed or not, to advance his individual aims. To prove this, one has only to mention his bolting from the Democratic ticket in 1858, and his offering a series of resolutions to a Democratic Convention held in this county at an early day, favoring the payment of the national debt according to the strict letter of the contract—for which he got beautifully snubbed, and a few years after, when the price was a seat in Congress, advocating "equitable adjustment," or repudiation.

And, now, up to the latest moment, he is found going back on his former declarations in relation to the "New Departure," for the reason, as he states it, "Eastern Oregon is entitled to either the Congressman or Senator, next time."

He has been successful, I will admit, so far, but how? By deserting his party, by stultifying himself; by descending from his high and honorable position of a Congressman to that of a mere wire-worker in local and county politics, from a School Director down so far as it was possible to go. In this regard he is discarded in Union county by his own party, and his interference in such matters is looked upon as being unwarrantable and presumptuous. But, then, it is no quarrel of ours, only so far as the natural pride of citizens is concerned. In this regard, however, Republicans as well as Democrats have an interest at stake.

Better for the people at large, better for the Democracy of Oregon, that Slater's name had never been mentioned in political matters. When his two years will have expired he will sink deep, deep in obscurity, remembered only as the political Chameleon of the past; and what he has done for the State will be written in the one simple word, "nothing."

Sheridan in Chicago.

HIS STORY OF WHAT HE DID AT THE REQUEST OF THE MAYOR AND THE CITIZENS DURING AND AFTER THE FIRE—KILLING OF COLONEL GROSVENOR.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives, in a letter written from Chicago on the 13th ult., the following as the substance of a statement made to him by General Sheridan, at his request:

"While the fire was in progress men came to me, knowing that my previous experience had been with battles and amid confusion, and wanted that I should blow everything up. They were mad with excitement. Some of them talked as if they wanted all the buildings in the city blown up. With this, however, I have nothing at present to do. After the fire was over persons of all classes, rich and poor alike, merchants and others, pressed around me and implored me to save the balance of the city. They seemed to have made up their minds that I was the only person they could look to. The appeals were very very numerous, and, as I have said, from persons in every condition in life; and finally, in order to allay the excitement, I consented to assume these duties, but only under and through the Mayor. When the Mayor brought his proclamation to me I insisted upon the insertion of a clause specifying that my action should not in any way be considered as interfering with the city Government. In regard to that point I was exceedingly careful, as I considered myself not as acting in any military capacity proper, but as a citizen of Chicago, doing the duties of a special policeman, under the orders of the Mayor. On the evening of Monday, the 9th of October, I sent for two companies from Omaha, without consulting with anybody. I afterward consulted with the Mayor, and he requested me to send for additional companies. Others also asked me to send for additional companies. Mayor Mason requested me to send for a company of cavalry, which I declined to do. The number of troops in the city at any time never exceeded 1,100. On the morning of Wednesday, the 11th, Col. Dilger, Adjutant General of the State, came to the city. He came, as I understand, direct from Governor Palmer," and I reported to the Mayor. The Mayor referred him at once to me for orders. Col. Dilger came to me without any hesitation, expressed a desire to do whatever he could: said he would like to have me furnish him a horse, for he had none. I did so, and suggested his duties, all of which action he took as a matter of course. As Col. Dilger was the military representative of the Governor, I could not but consider this whole proceeding as the gubernatorial indorsement of my action, and this impression was strengthened by subsequent occurrences.

"When I first took hold of the business I suggested that things should be so arranged that there should be no conflict between the regular police and military. I waived all objections that I might otherwise have had, and placed myself as a regular policeman, under the Mayor's orders, and got the Mayor to change his proclamation to that effect, as I have already stated. I then raised this regiment of volunteers, considering the military form the most efficient for future operations, and gave the command of it to Col. Sherman. He called the organization the First Chicago Volunteers, simply because it seemed desirable that it should have some distinctive name. Its members were not on pay nor mustered in, but simply sworn in. During the whole time nothing like martial law existed.

"On the 12th or 13th, I don't remember which, Governor Palmer came to the city, and called at my office. He seemed to be very much gratified at what had been done, and so expressed himself. He further requested that, since I had organized this new force, I should relieve and send home the various volunteer companies which had come to the city from different places, as many of them had left their business hastily, and were needed at home. These, I think, were all local companies, and some of them were very good ones. All of them were fed with Government rations while they were here. He urged that they should be sent to their families at once, and I finally consented. They all went next day, and I issued a formal order thanking them for the service they had rendered.

"The killing of Col. Grosvenor by young Treat was most unfortunate. The Colonel was a good man, and no one regretted the occurrence more than I did. Colonel Grosvenor had been especially solicitous that I should take charge of the city, and therefore his subsequent conduct was the more surprising. He was very persistent in asking me to do it. He came to me and urged me to do it, saying that there was no way of saving the city except by my doing so, and if I didn't do it the citizens of Chicago would compel me to. On the night of the shooting he was intoxicated, as I have since been informed. He was not known to the sentinel, and using bad language, and drawing a pistol, this boy thought he was only doing his duty in firing. No one can doubt the abstract right of the Mayor in raising extra police, as was done on this occasion. He is the Chief Executive of the city, and, as such, must take all measures to preserve the public offer in grave emergencies. As a citizen I had a right to act under him, using such means as were at my disposal. It is also an open question whether the Mayor, under such unprecedented circumstances, would not have had a right to give the city to me strictly in a military capacity, but this point it would be useless to discuss."

San Francisco Insurance Matters.

CONDITION OF THE PACIFIC INSURANCE COMPANY.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin, Nov. 25.]

We yesterday gave the result of an interview had by a Call reporter with a Director of the Pacific Insurance Company. There has been considerable talk on the subject since on California street, and no small amount of excitement among the stockholders. Our reporter, who called at the office of the Company yesterday, was informed by Vice-President Ralston that the Company had decided not to write any more policies until all the affairs had been settled up and a complete statement of accounts submitted. As nearly as can be ascertained, the liabilities of the Company are over a quarter of a million more than their presents assets, added to the amount derivable from the 75 per cent. assessment already levied. Previous to the Chicago fire the liabilities were over $300,000; shrinkage of capital amounted to about $175,000, through bad debts and loans past collection. Add to this a million and a half of loss by Chicago, and it will be seen that the responsibilities of the corporation amount to double the amount of the capital.

Immediately after the fire, circulars were issued in Chicago announcing that all losses on policies issued by the Pacific Insurance Company would be paid dollar for dollar. Such, it seems, was not done; the losses yet remain unsettled, and we are informed that the Company, through its agents, has attempted to compromise on a basis of forty cents on the dollar. The Company has been issuing policies ever since, up to within a day or two. If it were really insolvent and had no reasonable hope of making good its capital, such action was, at least, reprehensible, and no delay should be made in refunding the premiums paid on such policies, at least. The impression on the street seems to be that the Company will be unable to meet its liabilities, that the assessment will not be paid, and that it will be forced to disincorporate. It is to be hoped that such fears will not be realized, but the recent action of the Company gives little reason for such hope.

THE PEOPLE'S INSURANCE COMPANY is transacting no new business, but is engaged in settling its indebtedness as rapidly as possible. No report, as yet, has been submitted to Insurance Commissioner Mowe by the officers.

THE UNION INSURANCE COMPANY is transacting a good business, and has maintained status in commercial circles. The assessment will be delinquent on Monday next. Already a large proportion has been paid in, and much more is promised by stockholders before the day of delinquency. The receipts at the office, from premiums during the last thirty days, amount to double the average monthly receipts during the year, with a little over the average amount of risks.

THE OCCIDENTAL is said to have offered its Chicago creditors twenty cents on the dollar, in full of all demands, which has been refused. What arrangement may yet be made cannot be predicted.

THE FIREMAN'S FUND will probably be enabled to make satisfactory arrangements and continue its business. The President, who has been in Chicago recently, has again returned thither. It is presumed that after paying its losses, dollar for dollar, the Company will be left with a handsome surplus on which to continue business.

In case of the suspension of any of our Companies it will be interesting to discover of how much practical value to the insured is the personal liability clause of our State Constitution.

The November elections elicit the following from the Louisville Courier Journal: "We have no scheme of our own to advance. But it is clear that extraordinary measures of some kind must be taken, and these should become at once the absorbing topic of political speculation. The South, we can say with assurance, is ready to follow any lead which promises an outlet to its difficulties. It proposes no dictation. Our friends in the North have only to blaze the way, and we will cheerfully yield up our peculiar notions, whatever they may be."

Up to November 14 the number of cases of small-pox in Philadelphia, since January 1st, footed up 2,726. Since November 14 the number has been proportionately greater.

S. L. Stone is giving more toys and fancy goods for six bits than any house in town does for one dollar.

As S. L. Stone is closing out a lot of his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the last chance to buy cheap.

Everybody says S. L. Stone is selling the best bit and two bit cigars in the city.

Boss Tweed and others of the Tammany Ring have been stirred up very lively of late, but that is nothing compared with the excitement caused by Kohn & Pinkel, who have stocked their large clothing establishment, No. 91 Front street, with goods for winter wear to suit all classes, not only in style but in price. Scoling is bolloving, so go and examine their stock.

MULTNOMAH COUNTY JAIL, PORTLAND, OREGON, June 1, 1871.

A. M. LOVEJOY & CO.: I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—indeed in all the joints of my body. I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Pink Wood Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

TESTIMONIAL.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. C. White in touching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the fee not may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before increasing our reasons, we give a cordial invitation to call at our homes and interview her pupils.

For reference see advertisement.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 2, 1871.

CITY.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The annual election of the Fire Department will take place on Monday. The officers to be chose are a Chief Engineer and a First and Second Assistant Engineers. For the first office there are but two candidates—W. O. Bruce of Columbian Engine Co. No. 3, and A. A. Williams of Multnomah Engine Co. No. 2. For the other offices there are three candidates—Mr. Chas. Dietz of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co., A. Wendt of Multnomah Co., and Wm. Saunders of Willamette Co. Persons, not members of the Fire Department have no vote, of course, but every property owner in the city has an interest in the election, for the safety of property depends in a great degree upon the capabilities of the officers and the general efficiency of the organization. We may, therefore, without presumption, suggest to the firemen that in voting it is their duty to be careful to exercise the best judgment as to the qualifications and fitness of candidates for the positions voted for, the consideration rather than personal or company relations should be kept prominently in view. The choice of an efficient head and the selection of good subordinate organization of the Fire Department, are matters of very great importance, and as in these matters the firemen speak for the whole city, the responsibility is not at all a light one. We do not propose to advise firemen whom to vote for—that is their business. They probably know what candidates are best qualified, and our purpose is merely to suggest the duty of voting to secure the best possible fire organization without regard to personal favoritism or company jealousies.

CARRIE A. MOORE.—This young lady, who has been starring for several months in California, as a skatist and velocipedist, made her first appearance at the Pavilion Thursday evening. The announcement that she would exhibit some of her wonderful performances on skates, brought out a very large attendance. At one time, all the space outside the rail and a considerable part of the floor was occupied by a dense crowd of spectators. Of her artistical or professional performances, we can only speak at second hand, having arrived at the Pavilion at too late an hour to see them. Others say that she performs all the feats done by the most expert male skaters here, and many others, which the latter have never attempted. Contrary to the expectations of prudish people, she shows that all these things can be done gracefully and without the least indelicacy of attitude. We are glad that she has done this, because it will probably let loose some of the female talent at the rink, and we shall hereafter have some exhibitions of the "poetry of motion," instead of the everlasting humdrum movements of "plain skating." Miss Moore appeared again last evening before a large assembly, and will give exhibitions to-night. Some of her feats exhibit marvellous skill, and it is really worth while to go and see her.

SOME GARDEN PRODUCTS.—Mr. Charles Collier, gardener for Mr. Henry Failing, brought into our office last evening some specimens of Early Rose potatoes which are worthy of mention. At the Horticultural Fair held in this city last summer, Mr. Collier exhibited some very fine Early Rose potatoes, the crop of the season—which took the premium. Afterward, he planted his prize potatoes and their product were the potatoes shown us last evening. They are the second crop from the seed grown in 1871, and very respectable potatoes, too, being about as large as a goose egg, and were matured. Instances of such crops reaching full maturity are not very numerous. Mr. Collier also raised some very fine short top Field beets, one of which he showed us, measuring twenty-five inches in circumference; and some extraordinary celery, one head gathered Thanksgiving Day, weighing eight pounds and two ounces. These products were grown in the garden of Senator Corbett, in this city, where the soil is not generally understood to be first class; and show what can be done even in poor soil by good gardening.

STEAMER SENATOR SUNK.—On Thursday, the steamer Senator, being on route from Oregon City to Portland, was thrown by an eddy undercurrent against the rocks at Rynearson's Point—Clackamas Rapids—with such force as to make a large hole in her bottom, and she sunk almost immediately in water deep enough to cover her lower deck, two or three feet. She was making down the eastern chute when the accident occurred. In a good stage of water, this is considered the safer passage of the two. The Senator had on board, a heavy load of freight—over 150 tons, mostly flour. Some of it was damaged considerably. The steamer E. N. Cooke brought down a part of the freight on Thursday afternoon, and more of it yesterday. She will take the place of the Senator for the present. There will probably be not much trouble to raise the Senator and put her in condition for service again.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The steamship Ajax sailed at 8 P. M., Thursday, for San Francisco, with the following list of passengers: J. M. Sargent, Jr., D. H. Taylor, "Joaquin" Miller, F. A. Buteller, U. S. A., Wm. Watson, R. T. Osborne, Miss E. Lance, D. S. Murphy, Jas. R. Robbins and wife, Mrs. Collins and child, H. Dannenbury, H. B. Ruggles, E. Morehouse, W. A. Wells and wife, E. T. Sirot, Miss L. Gardner, Mrs. Wolf, T. M. Richardson, Chas. Herman, Miss Lizzie Sheehan, A. Sano, John Cradlebaugh, Mrs. A. Wanzohe, J. M. Anderson, J. G. Miller, J. Moody, E. Moody, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, and 42 in the steerage.

HOUSE ROBBED AGAIN.—The residence of Mr. W. P. Jones seems to be a favorite place for provision thieves to go to for their supplies. Not long since, in the absence of the family, some thieves went through the house, helping themselves to such things as they liked. On Wednesday night thieves got into the kitchen store-room and carried off a sack of flour, a box of candles, half barrel of sugar, a lot of soap, coffee, and general assortment of family supplies. They left the sugar barrel, having emptied the sugar into a sack, probably for greater ease of transportation.

THANKSGIVING.—The services at the several churches on Thursday were well attended..... Most of the business houses were closed through the day and evening..... The Emmet Guard celebrated the day by an annual ball which was one of the best the company ever gave. There was also, a large and very pleasant party at the American Exchange hotel..... Private assemblies and family dinners and reunions were altogether too numerous to mention. The day was more generally observed than ever before.

NEW BOOK.—To the Portland Library has been added a work on Botany, entitled "A Flora of North America," containing abridged descriptions of all the known indigenous and naturalized plants growing north of Mexico; arranged according to the natural system; in two vols., by John Torrey, M. D. F. L. S., member of the Imperial Academy Naturæ Curiosorum, and Asa Gray, M. D., Professor of Botany in the University of Michigan.

STEAMER TO SAIL.—The steamship Orifflamme is advertised to sail hence for San Francisco, on Friday, December 8th.

The steamer Geo. S. Wright is announced to sail for Victoria, San Juan, Nanaimo and Sitka, on Thursday, December 7th.

The steamer California will sail for Puget Sound ports and Victoria, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

BACHELDER'S PANORAMA.—The proprietor of the Panorama of a Tour Across the Continent, is about to take it to Puget Sound for exhibition. We can assure our neighbors over there that it is much the best series of panoramic pictures ever exhibited here and that it is deserving of their patronage.

THE LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY.—Gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $68 10, being the amount of collection taken at the M. E. Church on Thanksgiving Day. Also the sum of $35 from a gentleman in this city. Total, $103 10. Mrs. Sam'l H. Smith, Treasurer.

SCHOOL TAX.—We are requested to state that the teachers in the public schools particularly want their money for services rendered, and it is therefore hoped that the delinquents will call at the Clerk's office and settle.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department will be held at the Police Court room this evening at the usual hour.

THE STRAP GAME TRIAL.—The second jury in the case of Keathly was discharged, having failed to agree after being out a day and a half.

WORK of every description in the house finishing line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction.
PAUL RICHTER.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

DRY GOODS.—Messrs. Taylor & Brownell have removed from Yamhill and Third streets to Porter's building, two doors south of Morrison, on Third street. They are offering choice bargains.

OYSTERS.—Wing, at that old stand, on Stark street, opposite Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, has reduced prices, so that everybody can eat oysters now. See the new schedule in his card elsewhere.

THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS has signified his intention of coming as far west as San Francisco. He will not be able to visit Portland, but he has given orders to J. O'Neil & Co. for a suit of clothes, as he is well aware that at that establishment can be had the best fitting, most stylish, and to cap the climax the cheapest suits to be obtained in this city. Not only have they excellent clothing but they have a full stock of Star Shirts, new ties, underwear, drawers and the famous Quanaco Umbrella. It is unnecessary to say more. Go to O'Neil & Co's, 95 First street, and rest assured you will be pleased with what you see.

I say, mister, where is the Postoffice? Why, it is next door to S. L. Stone's cigar and tobacco store.

ANOTHER CURE WORTHY OF NOTE.

The following is an extract from a letter just received by Dr. Aborn, from one of his patients:

"ASTORIA, Oregon, Nov. 20, 1871.

DR. ABORN—DEAR SIR: I am happy to state that by following your directions and using your medicines for a few weeks, after I came home, I find all my ills removed. My hearing continues good, my lungs, I believe, are sound, and the catarrh is cured. My bronchial affections are better than they had been for ten years.

"I am fully satisfied that no other doctor could have saved me from consumption, or cured me of deafness, bronchial affections, &c.

"My deafness was cured in three days, lungs and bronchial affections in about four weeks. May you live long and bless the world by relieving suffering humanity. Yours truly,

"DAVID INGALLS."

Myself betake his Clothes to try;
And in one time than I can say, sir,

AN UNPREJUDICED PHYSICIAN

INTERVIEWED.

Bold Opinions Truly Expressed.

POPULARITY IS NOT ALWAYS A proof of desert. Every newspaper man knows that many articles are engineered into temporary popularity that have no intrinsic merit whatever. It is an easy thing to make sweeping assertions and now them broadcast in the columns of the public press. But there is a class of experienced and thoughtful minds not to be caught with chaff; like Captain Cuttle, they want "an opinion as is an opinion," in other words, the judgment of competent and disinterested authority, as a basis for their own.

Several of these cautious individuals having done us the honor to invite an expression of opinion in these columns on the properties of the much talked of Tonic known as PLANTATION BITTERS, we have taken the pains to obtain from a distinguished physician whose ability and integrity of purpose no one will venture to question, what may fairly be deemed a conclusive answer to the questions of our correspondents. Dr. Elias Kennedy Whitmarsh, as a surgeon, pathologist and chemist, has few superiors west of the Alleghanies, and the following conversation which occurred a few days ago between that gentleman and one of our staff, is offered, without comment, for the information of "whom it may concern:"

REPORTER.—Have you any objection to state your views in relation to a medicinal preparation which has obtained great celebrity in this country? The object is to ascertain whether the reputation is deserved or not.

DR. WHITMARSH.—If I know anything about the article, I'll tell you what I think of it. How is it named?

REPORTER.—PLANTATION BITTERS.

DR. WHITMARSH.—Well, it is a wholesome vegetable tonic.

REPORTER.—Anything else?

WHITMARSH.—Yes, it has a mild aperient property, and produces a salutary effect upon the liver when that organ is diseased.

REPORTER.—It contains alcohol I understand—Santa Croix Rum.

DR. WHITMARSH.—Of course it contains a diffusive stimulant. If it did not its medicinal ingredients would be comparatively inert. They are rendered operative by the alcoholic principle.

REPORTER.—Supposing that theory to be correct, is Santa Croix Rum a good article for that purpose?

DR. WHITMARSH.—The best I think. It is more nutritious and far less exciting than the spirits made from grapes or grain.

REPORTER.—But are stimulants really necessary at all in medical treatment?

DR. WHITMARSH.—Sir, if you had ever practiced medicine you would not ask the question. They are an essential portion of the materia medica. Every intelligent member of the profession knows that. The physician who denies it is either a hypocrite or a fool.

REPORTER.—Do you consider a medicated stimulant like the PLANTATION BITTERS preferable to simple alcohol? In other words, would the Santa Croix Rum be as useful without the other ingredients as with them?

DR. WHITMARSH.—Certainly not. Among those ingredients are Extract of Dandelion, one of the finest antibilious medicines I know of; Calisaya Bark, of all tonics the best; and Chamomile, an admirable stomachic. The remedial powers of those curatives is increased probably tenfold by the nutritive stimulant with which they are incorporated.

REPORTER.—You seem to have a high opinion of the Bitters.

DR. WHITMARSH.—I simply state facts, sir. You must draw your own conclusions.

REPORTER.—May I ask if you ever prescribed PLANTATION BITTERS for your patients?

DR. WHITMARSH.—I do, frequently. All that I have said to you is founded on my own experience. I never make positive statements on unessential grounds.

REPORTER.—I am sure of that. Excuse me for having trespassed so long on your valuable time. Good evening.

We presume the correspondents who have addressed us on the subject of PLANTATION BITTERS, will consider their questions satisfactorily answered by the remarks of Dr. Whitmarsh.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!

ASSETS $17,000,000!

ISSUED 9,025 POLICIES IN 1870.

Insuring Over $27,000,000!

WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKLIN, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a footing so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with his exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although contain claims, are not LEGALLY SO. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgments from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

The total exports of Breadstuff from July 1, 1871, to Nov. 30, 1871, amounts to 49,371 bbls Flour, 270,000 ctls Wheat making Flour & Wheat equals to 427,404.

During midsummer the Eastern commercial press teemed with the ascertained and apprehended short crops of Java, Ceylon and Brazil Coffees for the present year, and in consequence the market there began gradually improving until an advance has been established of 20@ 30 cts per cwt, in some instances even 40 cts was reached. The advance was so high as to make the Eastern market attractive to the old world, and as a consequence shipments there exported to New York 29,030 bags with a reserve on hand to follow if prices remain up. The news from Brazil in regard to the emancipation of the slaves is such as always all apprehensive of a short crop there next year or for years to come. Already this information has received that Ceylon is preparing to put more land in Coffee than heretofore, and one authority states that "no good reason can be assigned why by 1880 four hundred square miles of Ceylon cultivation will not send into the markets of the world $20,000,000 worth from the mountain regions of Ceylon." Java, and Indeed, all Coffee growing countries, under the stimulus of high prices ruling over the world, are preparing to cultivate Coffee more extensively than before. From all information obtainable it is hardly likely that prices will recede to as low a figure as ruled during the forepart of the year, for by comparing the stocks on hand in the leading ports of Europe—Holland, Antwerp, Hamburg, Rotterdam, Trieste, Genoa and the ports of Great Britain—it will be seen that the imports from January 1, 1871, to September 30, 1871, averaged 238,610 tons, against 205,380 tons in 1870, and 226,000 tons in 1869. The stocks on hand were, Sept. 30, 1871, 94,020 tons, against 91,800 tons in 1870. The imports into the six principal ports of the United States on the Atlantic from January 1, 1871, to September 30, 1871, amounted to 160,800 tons against 88,700 tons for the like period of 1870. The stocks at the same ports amounted on Sept. 30, 1871, to 5,400 tons against 9,100 tons Sept. 30, 1870. Taking the above comparison of imports and stocks on hand it will readily be perceived that the consumption shows a very large increase for the first nine months of 1871, over a like period of 1870, showing an increase in Europe of about 23,000 tons and in the Eastern States of over 10,000 tons. The quantity afloat for Europe on September 30, 1871, shows an increase of fully 75 per cent the same time in 1870. The shipments to the Atlantic ports have, owing to high prices, increased fully one-fifth. Our Rio coal has more than maintained with the market East as the market has been adjusted in such rates as to stop shipments from San Francisco to New York and also from the Western States, leaving a large stock on hand in San Francisco for this season of the year with the probability of large orders having come forward at the commencement of the advance, to Central America for cargo lots which when beginning to arrive must necessarily break the market and cause prices to recede until they reach a point that shipment East over the railroad can be renewed.
